

I am a long time listener of my local K-Love station and I believe that they are a vital part of the community.
The station gives us moral as well as spiritual support. If it were displaced by a LPFM station it would be devastating to the community.
I believe that K-Love serves the community by offering the local Christian community a place to express themselves without prejudice.